THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF SAN ANTONIO, INC. NAMES NEW MANAGING DIRECTOR

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 6, 2007 — The Junior League of San Antonio, Inc. (JLSA) today announced that Carolyn Kelley will serve as the new managing director for the league. Kelley will be responsible for overseeing the operations and assisting with the fundraising for the organization.

“I’m very excited to serve the JLSA and the San Antonio community through this new opportunity,” said Kelley. “It will be very rewarding to work with a group that’s passionate about using hard work and voluntarism to make San Antonio a better city for everyone.”

Most recently, Kelley held the position of District Manager, Donor Relations for the Alamo Community College District Foundation where she was responsible for managing relationships with donors for the foundation’s $6 million endowment program. Prior to that, Kelley was Director of Government and Public Affairs for the American Payroll Association, (APA) a $20 million, 22,000-plus member, national nonprofit organization with over 120 local chapters. During her time at the APA, Kelley received the American Society of Association Executive’s Award of Excellence in Public Relations for “National Payroll Week,” a multi-media campaign reaching over 20 million American citizens.

Kelley received her Bachelor’s of Arts in Journalism from New York University. Kelley is a founding member of Women for Economic Leadership Development in Columbus, OH, a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Chamber Choir, a citizen leader of the Tobin Hill Neighborhood Planning Team, a member of the San Antonio Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and the San Antonio Chapter of the American Society of Association Executives.
