TRADE IN AND TRADE UP: DONATE USED CLOTHES, GET NEW CLOTHES AT A DISCOUNT!

(San Antonio, TX) For a second year, The Junior League of San Antonio, Inc. (JLSA) has partnered with Stein Mart to offer a Style Exchange, a clothing drive for the JLSA's annual Rummage Sale. Customers are asked to bring clean, gently used clothing to any San Antonio Stein Mart location on October 12, 13, and 14, 2007. Clothing donations are tax-deductible. In return for their donations, they will receive up to four 20% off coupons from Stein Mart. The donated clothing benefits families in need as a part of the 84th annual Junior League Rummage Sale on February 29 through March 2, 2008.

The Rummage Sale is the JLSA's oldest fundraiser, providing a necessary service to the community by offering affordable clothing and other necessities to San Antonio families. Profits from the Rummage Sale are used by the JLSA to fund numerous community programs such as Literacy San Antonio, a signature project designed to combat the city's high illiteracy rate.

About the Junior League of San Antonio, Inc.

The Junior League of San Antonio, Inc. was founded in 1924, the 72nd Junior League to join the Association of Junior Leagues International.
