Table Information

Tuesday, March 1, 2022 at Mays Family Center – The Witte Museum

Featuring Guest Speaker Dominique Dawes

Dominique Dawes is best known for her tremendous success as an Olympic gymnast. As the first African American gymnast to qualify for three Olympic games, Dominique competed in 1992, 1996, and 2000 and is the only American gymnast to win team medals in all three. She has a permanent place in the U.S. Olympic Committee Hall of Fame. Dawes is much more than an accomplished gymnast. Retiring from the sport to which she dedicated 18 years of her life, Dawes has found a new passion for empowering others. She is an accomplished motivational speaker, speaking to audiences on passion, leadership, teamwork, health, fitness, and wellness.
